

Why Justice?

The hottest fashions and accessories for tweens (ages 7 to 14) at affordable prices can only be found at Tween Brands. Through our Justice stores, tween girls experience leading fashions that help them look and feel great. To us, there's nothing better. Oh, mom loves us too. Confident. Fashionable. Affordable. Yes, that's Justice and Tween Brands.

Our girl feels special when she walks into a Justice store. Crossing the threshold, she is immersed in an energetic environment where hottest fashion is brought to life. Justice stores are the global destination of choice for tween girls, and with good reason. Our merchandise sets the trends that keep tween girls fashionable—and, even better, feeling self-confident.

Overview

In addition to our company owned stores in the United States and Canada - we currently operate franchise businesses in South America, Middle East, India and South East Asia.

International is a growth vehicle for Justice and we are eager and excited to expand our footprint!

How can I become a franchise partner?

Qualification requirements to be considered as a potential franchise partner for Justice, is any franchise applicant have significant business experience in the apparel retail sector, including, by way of example only, franchise business development, retail operations, merchandising, real estate, store operations and brand management. In addition to this experience, you must exhibit a true passion for the tween girl and market!

If this describes your business, you may submit a summary of the following information for our consideration:

- Current business operations, including brands and points of distribution
- Profile of your organization
- Business capabilities and experience
- Markets of interest
- High level business plan

Please submit inquiries to international@justiceretail.com